Mobile Missile Study: [redacted]

- [redacted] was on leave this week. Therefore, there were no panel meetings. However, [redacted] has been working with OSD to arrange for briefings [redacted]

25X1

International Terrorism: [redacted]

25X1

- [redacted] attended a two-day "briefing" for Ambassador Oaklie, the Department of State's new Director of the Office for Combatting Terrorism (M/CT). The briefing was, in fact, more of a seminar with panel presentations on various aspects of terrorism provided by representatives from the intelligence and policy communities. There were no surprises from either. [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] The policy community representatives offered no promising new proposals--either proactive or reactive--for coping with the threat. Indeed, they were very sensitive to the ambiguity of intelligence on the subject, the likelihood of innocent casualties, the possible negative reactions of our allies, etc. [redacted]

25X1

Narcotics Activities: [redacted]

25X1

- On 9 October, [redacted] conferred with [redacted] A/NIO/Narcotics regarding narcotics matters, particularly the NIO's memorandum for the DCI identifying a number of narcotics collection target opportunities and their implication for budget resource allocations.

CBW Study: [redacted]

25X1

- The second meeting of the CBW Subcommittee has been postponed from 11 October to 15 October due to the involvement of most of the principals in SNIE meetings. Finalization of the TOR will be the primary focus of the 15 October meeting. 25X1
- [redacted] met with [redacted] on 10 October to discuss Subcommittee matters. 25X1
  - State still has not concurred in the CBW Study; only minor changes are required to the study, assuming State has no major revisions. 25X1
  - CIA also has not commented on the study. [redacted] talked to [redacted] (OSWR) on 9 October; his latest information is that CIA has not decided how it will respond and what it will say. (Note: [redacted] was TDY the week of 1 October and is not yet fully aware of present positions and thinking. It is possible that CIA will refuse to concur with the study in toto.) 25X1
